Summers breaks through on New Year's Day

New Year's Day saw 222 runners take on Weston Athletic Club's annual 10k Hangover race which follows a route along mainly country lanes around Kewstoke and Sand Bay. The unseasonably warm day and lack of rain made for greatly improved conditions compared with last year's race.

The first club member to finish was Kieron Summers in 37.25, followed by Wilf Huxtable in 41.44 and Marc Bostock in 43.56.

Katie Gormley was the first club female to cross the line in 47.07, closely followed by Niki Fulstow in 47.35. The third club woman to finish was Carol O'Leary in 50.25.

The club's next race is the fifth Weston prom run in the current series on Thursday January 15. The main five mile race starts at 7.30pm, and is preceded by the one mile race at 6.45pm.
